

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

TONY BARNES,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 17-23 JPD

DETENTION ORDER

The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and concludes there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

The Court received no verified information about defendant and defendant did not contest detention in this district. As defendant shall be transported to the Western District of Tennessee, this court's detention order is subject to review by the federal court there.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

1 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with
2 counsel;

3 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
4 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined
5 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 6 connection with a court proceeding; and

7 (4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States
8 Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.
